

Keep the no call list as it is in Wisconsin. This is what the people of Wisconsin want. These are our private home phones - not a business phone. Most of us would never, ever do business over the phone with people we don't know so we just end up hanging up on them anyway. The people who do business over the phone with a stranger are usually our elderly who end up getting taken. Please continue to stop this invasion into our homes. Thank you.